Traditional Open Pit BBQ Lump Charcoal & Mop Sauce

You won't find a huge smoke ring on our brisket. That's because we BBQ the traditional way over B&B Charcoal, open pit style. This is the way Old School BBQ has been passed down for generations. Originally, wood was burned to make coals and then shoveled under the meat on open pits. We keep this traditional BBQ style going by using B&B Charcoal, Mop Sauce and just a touch of pecan at the end for flavor.
